Alabama Folk School, Camp McDowell

The Alabama Folk School at Camp McDowell was founded in 2007 as a way to enrich lives and reconnect people to music, art, and each other. Our goal is to provide the opportunity for people to work creatively with their hands, minds, and spirits and to help preserve Alabama's cultural heritage. We do this by offering classes and workshops in traditional folk arts such as sacred harp singing, blacksmithing, dancing, storytelling, banjo, fiddle, quilting, and more. We also offer classes on traditional cooking and preserving techniques.
